The Haley Bickham Memorial Scholarship

Purpose

The purpose of the Haley Bickham Memorial Scholarship is to aid graduating high school seniors to further their secondary education in order to better equip them to serve our Lord Jesus Christ.

History

The Haley Bickham Memorial Scholarship Fund was begun by a generous offering collected at the 2000 Hot Hearts conference which took place shortly after Haley's passing on to be with our Lord.

Administration

1. The administration of the fund will be the responsibility of the scholarship fund trustees, which will consist of the Beaumont Committee Finance Chairman and two or three other members of the Beaumont Committee.
2. The available monies to be used for scholarship purposes shall be limited to the amount held in the Haley Bickham Designated account.
3. The investment of the monies shall be the responsibility of the scholarship fund trustees. The investments and their performance shall be reported to the Beaumont Committee.

Applicant Qualifications

1. Applicant must be present at the Hot Hearts in Beaumont immediately prior to their graduation from high school.
2. Applicant must be planning to use their vocation to share the gospel and serve others in some way
3. The grade point average will be considered by the scholarship fund trustees.
